Not illustrated. 1839 Excerpt: .This is the second import from the colony--the first being 150 barrels of sperm oil, by the Hitpid, for the South Australian Company. Both may be regarded as ar. earnest of the future staple of the colony; and, small an is the quantity, it is exceedingly gratifying to know that the two great branches of the colonial trade, the wool trade and the whaling trade, have been so speedily and so auspiciously commenced. Sixty vessels have sailed from England for the colony since Feb. 22, 1830 (the date of Am first departure), 1 sing nn average of three a month; an occurrence unprecedented in the annals of colonization. The number of souls hitherto conveyed from Great Britain is about /5000; but this must not be taken as the total population of thn province, a considerable number of persons having, as already hinted, arrived from the neighbouring...
