THE COMPLETE SHORT STORIES - VOLUME THREE

Thistle Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The stories in this third and final volume of John Buchan's complete short stories were written between 1912 and his death in 1940. These are the stories published when Buchan was at the height of his fame. Eight of them appear here for the first time as part of his oeuvre. Several of the stories in this collection are drawn from Buchan's experiences as a war correspondent in the First World War, first on the Western Front and then running wartime propaganda, but they are very varied in subject and treatment. The stories range from Richard Hannay's eerie tale set in the Transvaal and the Duke of Burminster's comic adventure in the Scottish Borders to Edard Leithen's tangle with South American revolutionaries in central London and Oliver Pugh's journey of discovery in the Sachischen Sweitz . Also included are two of Buchan's children's stories, The Magic Walking Stick and The Strange Adventures of Mr Andrew Hawthorn . John Buchan has the gift of all great story tellers of making the reader want to turn the page to see what happens next. Inevitably, some of his stories, written to a deadline, are merely workmanlike but some have the mark of greatness: the ability to stay in the mind of the reader long after the story has been read. Fans - and they are still numbered in tens of thousands - forget or do not even know that he had been a sort of infant prodigy. At Oxford he took on a literary agent and he achieved an entry in Who's Who when he was only 23. That was on...
