C(65) The last meaning in order of lo;u Copai is to impute, to re on to, to put to the account of. This is plainly aderioed, and not an original meaning. Hence, (as we have seen in respect to: ; i t in the Old Testament), this signification of the verb is not frequent. A great part of the instances of such a usage in the New Testament, occur in one and the same paragraph (Rom. IV), where the same subject is continued; and some, which are found elsewhere, appertain to the same subject. The use, therefore, which is ranked under this fifth head, seems to be very circumscribed. Rom. 4: 3, Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness; i. e. his believing, or the faith which he exercised in the divine promises of a numerous offspring,...
