Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .under our protection from visiting any particular port on account of their origin, and also to prohibit them from possessing many dhows. According to what we saw this year, our old protected subjects have taken flags for their new dhows, and the case is not, as you think, that they have increased (in number). And also, what would be against custom, is that there should be obstacles in their journeys (voyages) and their mercantile transactions. As to the injury which you mention, if it were (real) injury, how is it that others than yourself have not complained of it, and how is it that you yourself did not mention it during all this long period until now? As you hope for the friendship of our Government to you, it will, God willing, remain permanent, and many salaams to you. No. 3. Purport of Letter from the Sultan to the Consul of France, doted the 21th Rabeea 11 (26th September, 1897). (After compliments.) WE h;ve to inform you regarding those that have taken flags from the (French) Government and their deeds in respect of passengers and such as take a passage with them, that the (British) Consul has sent to us out of some of them a slave belonging to our cousin (the brother) Khalidbin-Bargash, named Ismail, who states that he ran away from our cousin Khalid in the dhow belonging to Muhammad-bin-Salim at Samamee, an inhabitant of al-Aikeh. After his arrival, he accommodated him in his...
