Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Lecture Delivered Before the American Institute of Instruction, Vol. 3: At Montpelier, Vt;, Aug; 16, 1849 on the Duties of Legislatures in Relation to Public Schools in the United States Contiguous districts may be united, in order to accomplish a fit classification of pupils. There shall be made to the legislature annual returns from every town, of all matters connected with the public schools. Clergymen are invited to take special interest in the schools. So much money as any town raises for the support of public schools, in such proportion shall said town be allowed to draw of the public money for the same purpose. All these laws, and others like them, have been passed by legislatures; and they may pass many more such, and yet not touch the deepest wants of the age. To ask if legislatures have the right to enact laws, required in the nineteenth century, is like asking if a parent has a right to do the best thing he can for his children. The only question is, how far should the legislative right be exercised? The duties of legislatures in relation to common schools may be summed up in this general statement; they are bound, politically and morally, to bring into natural and efficient action all the energies, physical, intellectual and moral, which are born in the State, or which belong to it; thus giving by law to every child the opportunity of making the most of himself All the human faculties should be developed in their natural order, proper time, and due proportion. To make this plain, let us place before our mind s eye a man, whose...
