Excerpt: . that the mayor might have thrown a cordon of police around the meeting and permitted it to proceed, but the presence of police at such times is not always an assurance of peace, and if the mayor in his judgment thought that impractical or unsafe, and that the safer way was to forbid the meeting, how can his action, viewed in the broad sense, be an infraction of the rights of the people? Where in Letting of Contract Charter Provision is Violated, Contract Will Not Support Claim for Reasonable Value Where a charter forbids purchases of supplies, appliances, etc., by a municipality without competitive bidding, where the amount involved exceeds a certain sum, the provision cannot be evaded by splitting up into several purchases what is in reality a single purchase (e. g., a fire and police alarm system). And where the provision...
