So where the proceedings are for the protection of the Guardians in the exercise of their official functions, --as for absconding from the Workhouse with the Union clothing, misbehaviour in tho Workhouse, or proceedings against officers for purloining, embezzling, or misapplying the property of the Union, or disobeying the orders of the Guar Art. 4.--He shall take care in every case that his bill for legal business against the Guardians shall be duly taxed before the same shall be paid (a). dians, or against persons for illegally introducing spirituous liquors into the Workhouse, --so would conveyancing business connected with the sale of property belonging to the Guardians, or the purchase of property as for the enlargement of the Workhouse premises. So also would be appeals to Special Sessions under 27 28 Vict. c. 39, ss. 1, 2. In making applications to the Justices, the Clerk must attend such Justice whenever the attendance may be required, according to the circumstances affecting the jurisdiction of the Justices, whether within or out of the Union. Of course there is nothing to prevent the Overseers from employing the Clerk, if he be an attorney or solicitor, to transact any legal business in which they may be engaged on behalf of their particular Parish; but he cannot act, or rather ought not to act, professionally as the advocate or agent on behalf of a particular Parish, in any matter in which the interests...
