Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Voice of Joseph: Elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, From the City of the Great Salt-Lake, California To correct the misrepresentations which are abroad in this country in reference to the people styled Latter Day Saints; and more fully to satisfy the public enquiry in regard to the principles, and character of that people, the Author has concluded to present a sketch of the foundation of their church; a brief history of their progress, persecutions and expulsion from the states of Missouri and Illinois, and a general view of their present location, settlements and government in Upper California: also, a brief account of the missionary labors of their Elders; the prosperity attendant upon their exertions in preaching the Gospel throughout the United States, Canada, England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, and other countries. Joseph smith, junior, whom it pleased the Lord to select and appoint to restore the primitive Gospel and apostolic Priesthood, was born in 1805 in Vermont, United States. When about 15 years of age, being seriously impressed with the necessity of seeking the Lord and preparing for a future state, his mind became much perplexed through difficulties thrown in the path of his researches by the multitude of religious sects and parties with which he was surrounded. Each system claimed its right and power to give belief and hope, but none to communicate knowledge of its divine Authority. In comparing them one with another there seemed too much confusion, the same also appeared in looking at each separately: - turning therefore from these clashing systems, and having been encouraged, and inspired with the following passage in St. James...
