Women in The Indian Parliament

By J.K. Chopra

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1993. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xii+497pp Women constitute the backbone of the society and also represent the bulk of the population. The general development of the society is unconceivable unless and until the women march ahead in all walks of life alongwith men. The present volume on women covers a long period of about forty years from 1950 to 1989 i.e. upto the 9th Lok Sabha. An analytical and comparative approach has been adopted to discuss the different aspects of the study on women. The study has been divided into six chapters. The first Chapter traces the origin and growth of Indian women's movement, and their ideology in late 19th century and early 20th Century. The second Chapter attempts to probe into the initiative and role of women in the vast field of legislation on a variety of subjects concerning women, children and other things in the post-Independence period. The third and fourth Chapters relate to the participation of women in the discussions of Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha on several social, economic and welfare issues. These Chapters also analyse the reasons for the low representation of women in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha, their...
