Anthony, Sir: I offer no special apology for addressing you at this time. The relation existing between us gives me a right to choose my own time, or any time that may suit my purpose and not be offensive to good taste, or inconsistent with a proper regard for public opinion. To you, Senator Anthony, I owe nothing politically. I have received nought but wrong and injustice at your hands. I say on my part, unprovoked and unmerited; unless it be a provocation to defend one's character as a public man, against imputations which if verified, ought to consign me to more than political obscurity. I have rested for some years under accusations and imputations foul and false, cast upon me by you during the canvas of 1859. Guiltless I was of what you then charged me with: nay, to the extent of my ability I made an earnest effort to hold prominently...
