Time is getting on, little mother, and we ll soon have to say farewell! Aye, my child. The parting is a sad one to me; but I hope and trust the good God will hold you in His safe keeping, and guide your footsteps back home to me again! Never you fear, little mother. He will do that, and in a year s time we shall all meet again under the old roof-tree, I m certain. Keep your heart up, mother mine, the same as I do; remember, it is not a Farewell I am saying for ever, it is merely Auf wiedersehen! I hope so, Eric, surely; still, we cannot tell what the future may bring forth! said the other sadly.
