Belcour preferred the former; and they sauntered out to view the town, and to make remarks on the inhabitants, as they returned from church. Montraville was a lieutenant in the army; Belcour was his brother officer; they had been to make leave of their friends previous to their departure for America, and were now returning to Portsmouth, where the troops at Chichester to dine; and knowing they had sufficient time to reach the place of destination before dark, and yet allow them a walk, had resolved, it being Sunday afternoon, to take a survey of the Chichester ladies as they returned from their devotions.
